

BBAF Privacy Policy

By using BBAF's website, you consent to the practices described in this statement.

Beyond Barriers Athletic Foundation (BBAF) places a high priority on protecting your privacy. This privacy policy was created in order to demonstrate BBAF's commitment to the privacy of our website users, donors and volunteers.

When you visit www.beyondbarriersaf.org you may provide us with personal information (such as name, address, e-mail address, telephone numbers and/or credit/debit card information) that you knowingly choose to disclose, which is collected on an individual basis for various purposes. These purposes include registering to receive email newsletters or other materials, requesting further information from us about our programs, donating to us, making requests, submitting a form on our website, or simply asking a question. BBAF receives and stores information you enter on our website or give us. We ask for personal information so that we can fulfill your request and return your message. This information is retained and used in accordance with existing laws, rules, regulations, and other policies. BBAF does not collect personal information from you unless you provide it to us. If you choose not to provide any of that information, we may not be able to fulfill your request, however, you are free to browse other sections of the website.

This website may contain links to other websites. Please note that when you click on one of these links, you are entering another site. We encourage you to read the privacy statements of these linked websites as their privacy policy may differ from ours.

When you supply information about yourself for a specific purpose, BBAF uses the information for only that purpose (such as to provide the service or information you have requested). For example, you may be asked to give us individual information to receive information, to make a donation, to volunteer, or to apply for a job. BBAF does not share this information with outside parties. BBAF does not sell, rent, give-away or share its e-mail addresses or other information to anyone outside the organization.

You may choose to opt out at any time, which will cease communication from us. BBAF may also use your information to track visitors of our website. This lets us see which of our features are most popular so we can better serve our users' needs. It also lets us provide aggregate data about our traffic (not identifying you personally, but showing how many visitors used which features, for example).

Personally identifiable information is stored on BBAF's server and is not publicly accessible. Further, personally identifiable information is only accessed by BBAF personnel on a "need to know" basis. To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.

Anonymous information is collected for every visitor to this site. This includes pages viewed, date and time, and browser type. IP numbers are not stored, but are temporarily used to determine domain type and in some cases, geographic region. We do not make any association between this information and a visitor's identity.

BBAF's online donations pages are processed through Stripe. Stripe has been audited by a PCI (Payment Card Industry) - certified auditor and is certified to PCI Service Provider Level 1. This is the most stringent level of certification available in the payments industry. To accomplish this, Stripe makes use of best-in-class security tools and practices to maintain a high level of security. Learn more here.

BBAF may amend this privacy policy from time to time; please review it periodically. Any changes will be reflected on this website. Your continued use of our website after the date that such notices are posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms. If you have comments or questions regarding privacy, please contact us.

BBAF may disclose personal information when required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary in order to conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on BBAF.
